

1. Insert the hinge into the doorframe slot (1A) with the notch facing up and slide the locking pin into the hole (1B) to hold the hinge in place

2. Slide the door down onto the hinge

3. Apply the lintel over the doorframe, aligning the circular hole with the locking pin. It is advisable to glue the lintel in place to keep the door secured to the tile

